

New York Weekend Packing List

Below is a recommended packing list for the weekend.

- A “nicer” outfit for Shabbat service at Romemu and Simchat Torah - Romemu is a liberal synagogue, nice outfit is defined as nice jeans and simple collared shirt or blouse.
- Kippah (if you choose to wear one in synagogue).
- Comfortable walking shoes - there will be a lot of walking.
- Day backpack - we will be away from the hostel from morning until early evening every day.
- A little bit of spending money (only for souvenirs and snacks - all food and fees will be covered).
- Pants and shirts
- Sweatshirt or sweater
- Underwear
- Socks
- Pajamas
- Toiletries
- Shower sandals (ie: flip flops)
- Jacket for rain/evening warmth
- Umbrella
- Cell phone & charger
- Medicine. If you’d like the staff to hold any of it, let us know.
- Homework (there will be some time on the bus).
- No Laptops - you will not have time to use them in New York, and we can’t guarantee their safety at the hostel.
- Towels and linens are provided by the hostel.

Please check the weather closer to the weekend, and pack accordingly.
